6. Miss Helen Tomaffik in the office of Congressman Daniel J. Flood (D., Pa.) called regarding the application of [redacted] [redacted] for a position as a [redacted] at a GS-5. Mr. [redacted] had evidently told Mr. Flood he had heard nothing from the Agency regarding his application. Checked with Personnel and learned he was [redacted] but Personnel had written him on 20 January 1959 saying we had nothing available for him. Miss Tomaffik was given the information that we had written him saying we had nothing available. She thanked us for the information and said she would tell the Congressman.

9. Advised Tom Roderick, General Counsel's office of USIA, that we were obliged to call Al Westphal back on the [redacted] He was advised that we intended to indicate to Westphal that we were aware of [redacted] 's contacts in his first area of assignment and that we received reports on these contacts as a "consumer," that this arrangement was made with the knowledge of his USIA superiors in the field and had been terminated by the time he was transferred to [redacted] Roderick had no objection to this and added that as far as USIA was concerned these contacts produced nothing of great value. He did not appear at all surprised that we were kept advised on these contacts.
